In re LIDODERM ANTIRUST LITIGATION

MDL Docket No. 14-md-02521-WHO

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO ALL CASES

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 Disclosure and discovery activity in the actions consolidated for pretrial purposes under 2 this Master File are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private 3 information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose 4 other than prosecuting this litigation would be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby 5 stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties 6 acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to 7 discovery and that the protection it affords extends only to the limited information or items that 8 are entitled under the applicable legal principles to treatment as confidential. The parties further 9 acknowledge, as set forth in Section 7, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order creates no 10 entitlement to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the 11 procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards that will be applied when a party 12 seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

13 1. SCOPE OF PROTECTIVE ORDER

14 1.1 This Protective Order shall apply to all documents, things, or information subject 15 to discovery in these actions that is owned, possessed, or controlled by a party or a non-party and 16 that contains the party's or non-party's trade secrets or other confidential research, development 17 or commercial information in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1), or other information 18 required by law or agreement to be kept confidential ("Confidential Discovery Material").
19 Notwithstanding the scope of this Protective Order, the parties recognize that use of Confidential 20 Discovery Material at trial is an issue to be discussed in advance of and addressed as appropriate 21 in the proposed Joint Pretrial Order.

22 2. CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS (TWO-TIER)

23 2.1 Each party and any non-party shall have the right to designate any Confidential 24 Discovery Material as confidential and subject to this Protective Order, by marking such Material 25 as either "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." It shall be the duty of the party 26 or non-party who seeks to invoke protection under this Protective Order ("Producing Party") to 27 give notice, as set forth below, of the Confidential Discovery Material designated to be covered 28 by this protective Order ("Designated [CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL]

1 Material”). The duty of the parties and of all other persons bound by this Protective Order to 2 maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Discovery Material so designated (“Receiving Party”) 3 shall commence with such notice.

4 2.2 Under this Protective Order, Confidential Discovery Material shall be marked 5 “CONFIDENTIAL” if, and only if, the Producing Party in good faith considers the Discovery 6 Material to be, reflect or reveal a trade secret or other confidential research, development or 7 commercial information in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c)(1), or other information 8 required by law or agreement to be kept confidential.

9 2.3 Under this Protective Order, Confidential Discovery Materials can be designated 10 as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” Material if the Confidential Discovery Material is 11 “CONFIDENTIAL” as set forth in Paragraph 2.2 above and constitutes or reflects trade secrets or 12 other proprietary information; confidential research, development, testing and studies relating to 13 drug products; and/or sensitive financial or strategic commercial information, where the 14 disclosure of the information is likely to cause harm to the competitive position of the Producing 15 Party.

16 2.4 CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material, respectively, shall 17 include: (a) all copies, extracts, and complete or partial summaries prepared from such 18 CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material; (b) portions of deposition transcripts 19 and exhibits thereto that contain, summarize, or reflect the content of any such CONFIDENTIAL 20 or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material; (c) portions of briefs, memoranda, or any other writings 21 filed with the Court and exhibits thereto that contain, summarize, or reflect the content of any 22 such CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material; (d) written discovery responses 23 and answers that contain, summarize, or reflect the content of any such CONFIDENTIAL or 24 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material; and (e) deposition testimony designated in accordance 25 with the paragraphs below.

26 2.5 CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material shall not include any 27 discovery material which:
28

- a. is in the public domain at the time of disclosure;
- b. becomes part of the public domain through no fault of a Receiving Party or third parties who are not in breach of any obligations to the Producing Party;
- c. is information the Receiving Party can show was in its possession prior to the time of disclosure; or
- d. is information the Receiving Party receives at a later date from a third party properly and rightfully in possession of said information, and not as a result of any breach of confidentiality, and properly and rightfully authorized to make disclosure without restriction as to disclosure.

3. DESIGNATING MATERIALS AS “CONFIDENTIAL” AND/OR “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL”

3.1 The designation of information as CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material for purposes of this Order shall be made in the following manner:

- a. with regard to written material (including transcripts of depositions or other testimony), a legend shall be affixed to each page substantially in the form, “CONFIDENTIAL — Subject to Protective Order” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL — Subject to Protective Order”; and
- b. with regard to non-written material, such as recordings, magnetic media, photographs and things, a legend substantially in the above form shall be affixed to the material, or a container for it, in any suitable manner.
- c. A Party or non-party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, and until and unless produced without any confidentiality designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed to be HIGHLY

1 CONFIDENTIAL Material. After the inspecting Party has identified the 2 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party shall affix 3 the appropriate legend on each page that contains Confidential Discovery 4 Material.

- 5 d. Any party may designate any or all portions of depositions taken in these 6 actions as CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material 7 either (1) by making a statement on the record at the deposition, or (2) by 8 serving notice in writing to counsel of record within thirty (30) days of 9 receiving the transcript of the deposition. Only those portions of a 10 deposition that actually contain CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY 11 CONFIDENTIAL Material may be so designated. All deposition 12 transcripts will be treated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material until a 13 party designates any or all portions of the transcript as CONFIDENTIAL 14 and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material or until thirty (30) days after 15 receipt of the transcript, whichever is earlier. If a designation is made, the 16 CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL portions and 17 exhibits, if filed with the Court, shall be subject to the filing requirements 18 set forth in Paragraph 7 below. If any depositions are videotaped or 19 digitally recorded, those portions of the videotape or recording 20 corresponding to portions of the deposition transcript designated as 21 CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL shall be afforded the 22 same status.

23 3.2 Notwithstanding the obligation to timely designate CONFIDENTIAL and/or 24 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material under the foregoing paragraphs 3.1(a)-(d), the inadvertent 25 or unintentional failure to designate specific Confidential Discovery Material as 26 CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material shall not be deemed a waiver in 27 whole or in part of the claim of confidentiality. Upon prompt notice from the Producing Party of 28

1 such failure to designate, all Receiving Parties shall cooperate to restore the confidentiality of the 2 inadvertently or unintentionally disclosed Confidential Discovery Material. No party shall be 3 held in breach of this Order if, prior to notification of such later -designation, such Confidential
4 Discovery Material had been disclosed or used in a manner inconsistent with such later 5 designation. The Producing Party shall provide substitute copies of the Discovery Material 6 bearing the corrected designation. The Receiving Party shall return or certify the destruction of 7 the undesignated Confidential Discovery Material.

8 4. DISCLOSURE AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL DISCOVERY MATERIAL

9 4.1 Absent an agreement of the Producing Party or an Order to the contrary by this 10 Court or other court of competent jurisdiction, and except as provided in Paragraph 4.4 below, 11 each party and all other persons bound by the terms of this Protective Order shall use any material 12 designated as CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material by a party or non-13 party other than itself solely for purposes of these actions, and such Material shall not be used for 14 any other purpose, including, without limitation, any business or commercial purpose. The 15 attorneys of record for the parties shall exercise reasonable care to ensure that the information and 16 documents governed by this Protective Order are (a) used only for the purpose specified herein, 17 and (b) disclosed only to authorized persons.

18 4.2 Subject to Paragraphs 4.4-5.4, CONFIDENTIAL Material may be disclosed, 19 summarized, described, revealed or otherwise made available in whole or in part only in 20 accordance with the terms of this Order and only to the following persons:

- 21 a. any employee of a Party who is required in good faith to provide material 22 assistance in the conduct of the litigation of these actions, and who 23 executes a copy of the Undertaking attached hereto as Exhibit A. If a 24 Producing Party objects to the disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL material to 25 any such employee, the designated employee may not view that producing 26 party's CONFIDENTIAL Material, provided that the designating party 27
28

1 may seek relief from the Court following a good faith meet and confer 2 effort with the Producing Party to resolve the objection.

- 3 b. Parties' internal counsel, and their legal, investigative, technical, 4 administrative and other support staff, engaged in the conduct of these 5 actions;
- 6 c. outside counsel for the Parties in these actions or other counsel who have 7 entered an appearance in these actions, their respective legal, investigative, 8 technical, administrative and other support staff, engaged in the conduct of 9 these actions on behalf of named Parties;
- 10 d. this Court, or any other court exercising jurisdiction with respect to these 11 actions, any appellate court(s), court personnel, jurors, alternate jurors, and 12 qualified persons (including necessary clerical personnel) recording, taking 13 or transcribing testimony or argument at any deposition, hearing, trial or 14 appeal in these actions;
- 15 e. any person designated by the Court upon such terms as the Court may 16 deem proper;
- 17 f. outside experts and consultants in the fields of marketing, development, 18 and/or approval of pharmaceutical products and their staff retained to 19 assist the parties in the conduct of these actions, subject to the provisions 20 of Paragraph 5.2 and so long as such person has executed a copy of the 21 Undertaking attached as Exhibit A;
- 22 g. outside experts and consultants in any other field (e.g., economic experts 23 and trial consultants) and their staff retained to assist the parties in the 24 conduct of these actions, so long as such person has executed a copy of the 25 Undertaking attached as Exhibit A;
- 26 h. persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., 27 photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or 28

demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and subcontractors, including any assistants and/or mock jurors that professional jury or trial consultants may employ, retained by outside counsel for a Party to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for these actions and who will maintain the confidentiality of such Confidential Discovery Material;

- i. witnesses or potential witnesses in these actions and their counsel, as permitted pursuant to the provisions of Paragraphs 6.1-6.3;
- j. court reporters, videographers and translators; and
- k. others as to whom the Producing Party has given written consent.

4.3 Subject to Paragraphs 4.4-5.4, HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material may be disclosed, summarized, described, revealed or otherwise made available in whole or in part only in accordance with the terms of this Order, and only to the following persons:

- a. Parties' internal counsel, and their legal, investigative, technical, administrative and other support staff, engaged in the conduct of these actions;
- b. outside counsel for the Parties in these actions or other outside counsel who have entered an appearance in these actions and regular and temporary staff of such counsel to the extent necessary to assist such counsel in the conduct of these actions;
- c. outside experts and consultants in the fields of marketing, development, and/or approval of pharmaceutical products and their staff retained to assist the parties in the conduct of these actions, subject to the provisions of Paragraph 5.2 and so long as such person has executed a copy of the Undertaking attached as Exhibit A;
- d. outside experts and consultants in any other field (e.g., economic experts and trial consultants) and their staff retained to assist the parties in the conduct of these actions, so long as such person has executed a copy of the Undertaking attached as Exhibit A;

- e. persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying; videotaping; translating; preparing exhibits or demonstrations; organizing, storing, retrieving data in any form or medium; etc.) and their employees and subcontractors, including any assistants and/or mock jurors that professional jury or trial consultants may employ, retained by outside counsel for a Party to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for these actions and who will maintain the confidentiality of such Confidential Discovery Material;
- f. witnesses or potential witnesses in these actions and their counsel, as permitted pursuant to the provisions of Paragraphs 6.1-6.3;
- g. the Court and its employees and the jury;
- h. court reporters, videographers and translators; and
- i. others as to whom the Producing Party has given written consent.

The parties anticipate that there may be a need for additional confidentiality protection for a limited number of HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL materials that contain highly sensitive, forward-looking business information. Such material may be designated as “OUTSIDE COUNSEL EYES ONLY,” and may not be shown to parties’ internal counsel notwithstanding Paragraph 4.3.a. above, but may be shown to all remaining parties identified in Paragraph 4.3 subject to the terms and conditions herein.

4.4 Irrespective of whether an individual has executed the CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Undertaking, this Order shall not apply to and, thus, does not restrict any party’s use, for any purpose, of (1) its own CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material, or (2) any documents, things, information or other material that, at the time of disclosure in these actions, is publicly known through no unauthorized act of such party or was lawfully developed or obtained independent of discovery in these actions.

Moreover, this Order shall not apply to and does not restrict any individual from reviewing or seeing any document generated or received by that individual or communicated to or known to that individual, and does not restrict any individual from reviewing or seeing any document containing information believed in good faith to be known to the individual. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any portions of the CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material that, on its face, was not communicated to or known to the individual shall be redacted before showing the document to the individual. Nothing in this Paragraph is intended to, or does, preclude a Party from taking action under Paragraph 10.3 below due to the conduct described in this Paragraph.

4.5 This Order shall not restrict any attorney who is a qualified recipient under the terms of Paragraphs 4.2(b)-(c) and 4.3(a) from rendering advice to his or her client that is a Party with respect to these actions, and in the course thereof, from generally relying upon his or her examination of CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material. In rendering such advice or in otherwise communicating with the client, the attorney shall not disclose directly or indirectly the specific content of any CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material of another Party or non-party where such disclosure would not otherwise be permitted under the terms of this Order.

4.6 If a party is served with a subpoena, discovery request in another action, or any other request seeking by legal process the production of documents, things, information or other material produced to it and designated as CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material in these actions, such party shall notify promptly the Producing Party so as to provide the Producing Party a reasonable opportunity to object to the production.

5. PROCEDURES FOR DISCLOSURE OF “CONFIDENTIAL” AND “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” INFORMATION

5.1 Every person to whom CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material or information contained therein is to be disclosed, summarized, described, characterized, or otherwise communicated or made available in whole or in part, first shall be

1 advised that the material or information is being disclosed pursuant and subject to the terms of 2 this Order.

3 5.2 Furthermore, regarding those qualified recipients under the terms of Paragraphs 4 4.2(f) and 4.3(c) to whom disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 5 Material is sought, the Party seeking to disclose such Material shall give notice to the Producing 6 Party as follows: Counsel for the Party seeking to make the disclosure shall provide written 7 notice by electronic mail to counsel for the Producing Party, and all other Parties to these actions, 8 that (1) sets forth the full name of the expert and the city and state of his or her primary residence, 9 (2) attaches a copy of the expert's current resume, (3) identifies the expert's current employer(s), 10 (4) identifies (by name and number of the case and location of court) any litigation in connection 11 with which the individual has testified as an expert during the preceding four years, and 12 (5) attaches an executed copy of the Undertaking attached hereto as Exhibit A. Counsel for the 13 Party seeking to disclose such Material need not specifically identify the Designated 14 CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material intended to be disclosed.

15 5.3 The Producing Party shall have seven (7) days after receiving notification pursuant 16 to Paragraphs 5.2 within which to object to the proposed disclosure, as provided below; such 17 disclosure shall not occur before the time for any objection by the Producing Party expires, and, if 18 any such objection is made, before that objection is resolved, as provided below. Any such 19 objection shall be made in writing by electronic mail to the counsel for the Party seeking to make 20 the disclosure, and all other Parties to these actions. Failure to object within the time period set 21 forth above shall be deemed consent.

22 5.4 Within seven (7) days of receipt of an objection, the Parties shall meet and confer 23 to attempt to resolve their dispute. If the objection cannot be resolved by the Parties, the Party 24 making the objection has ten (10) days to seek relief from the Court. If the Party making the 25 objection seeks such relief from the Court, the intended disclosure shall not be made unless and 26 until the Court enters an order authorizing such disclosure. The Party making the objection shall 27 have the burden of proof that the intended disclosure should not occur. To discourage unwarranted objections and motions practice, a moving party whose objection is overruled shall pay expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, to the Party seeking to disclose the Material.
28

6. EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES

6.1 Any inventor or current employee of a Party may be examined at trial or upon deposition concerning any CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material of such Party.

6.2 Any expert witness may be examined at trial or upon deposition concerning any CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material.

6.3 Any other person may be examined as a witness at trial or upon deposition concerning any CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material which that person had lawfully generated, received or which was previously communicated to or known to that witness. During examination or preparation therefor, any such witness may be shown CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material which appears on its face or from other documents or testimony to have been generated or received by that witness or communicated to or known to that witness or which contains information believed in good faith to be known to the individual. Any portions of the CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material that, on its face, was not communicated to or known to the witness shall be redacted before showing the document to the witness.

7. FILING PROTECTED MATERIAL

Without written permission from the Producing Party or a Court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Confidential Discovery Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Confidential Discovery Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5.

8. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED MATERIAL

8.1 If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, work product immunity, or any other applicable privilege or immunity is produced inadvertently, the Parties shall comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B).

1 9. OBLIGATIONS OF OUTSIDE COUNSEL

2 9.1 It shall be the responsibility of outside counsel to ensure strict compliance with the 3 provisions of this Protective Order in their dealings with CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY 4 CONFIDENTIAL Material, and it shall be the responsibility of outside counsel to take reasonable 5 and proper steps to ensure that this Protective Order and all provisions thereof are made known to 6 any person who shall examine CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material as 7 provided herein. All persons responsible for determining that materials contain 8 CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material shall be familiar with this 9 Protective Order and the scope of its protection. All CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY 10 CONFIDENTIAL Material including any and all copies thereof shall be kept by the Receiving 11 Party in a place appropriately safe, given its status.

12 10. OTHER

13 10.1 Conclusion of the Action: Within sixty (60) days after entry of a final judgment or 14 dismissal with prejudice in these actions (including appeals or petitions for review) or the 15 execution of a settlement agreement among all the parties finally disposing of all issues raised in 16 these actions, outside counsel and all other persons having possession or control of another 17 party's CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material, including any briefs, 18 motions, pleadings, expert reports or other documents created during the course of these actions 19 that contain CONFIDENTIAL and/or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material, shall: (a) return all 20 CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material and any copies thereof to the 21 appropriate outside counsel who produced the CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY 22 CONFIDENTIAL Material; or (b) destroy such CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY 23 CONFIDENTIAL Material. Each party shall give written notice of such destruction to outside 24 counsel for the Producing Party. Counsel of record, however, may retain copies of all filings, 25 written discovery, and correspondence for archival purposes. Further, all notes, summaries, or 26 other documents prepared by attorneys, or outside experts/consultants designated as provided in 27 Paragraphs 10 and 11, derived from or containing CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY 28

1 CONFIDENTIAL Material, shall after the conclusion of the actions, be kept within the files of 2 trial counsel for the party creating such work product, or be destroyed.

3 10.2 Other Proceedings: By entering this order and limiting the disclosure of 4 information in this case, the Court does not intend to preclude another court from finding that 5 information may be relevant and subject to disclosure in another case. Any person or party 6 subject to this order who becomes subject to a motion to disclose another party's information 7 Designated CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material pursuant to this order 8 shall promptly notify the Producing Party of the motion so that the party may have an opportunity 9 to appear and be heard on whether that information should be disclosed.

10 10.3 Contested Designations: A Party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety 11 of designating any CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material at the time such 12 designation is made, and failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. In the 13 event that a Party disagrees at any stage of these proceedings with the designation by the 14 Producing Party of any information as CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 15 Material, the Parties shall try first to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. The 16 objecting Party shall first provide written notice to the Producing Party, identifying the 17 CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery Material whose designation it 18 challenges and setting forth the basis for the challenge. Except in the case of a challenge for more 19 than twenty (20) documents or more than twenty-five (25) pages of deposition testimony, within 20 fourteen (14) days of its receipt of written notice of the challenge to its designation, the Producing 21 Party shall meet and confer with the objecting Party in order to attempt to resolve any dispute 22 concerning the designation by agreement or stipulation. In the case of a challenge for more than 23 twenty (20) documents or more than twenty-five (25) pages of deposition testimony, the 24 challenging Party and the Producing Party shall meet and confer in good faith to establish a 25 reasonable timeframe for a response to the challenge. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the 26 objecting Party may seek appropriate relief from the Court, but the Party seeking to restrict 27 disclosure of information shall bear the burden of proof that it constitutes CONFIDENTIAL and 28

1 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material. The objecting Party's motion or application to the Court
2 shall identify with specificity the CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Discovery 3 Material that is the subject of the motion, but shall not disclose or reveal the contents of that 4 material except in the manner prescribed by Paragraph 7 of this Protective Order. If such a motion 5 or application is made, all Discovery Material so designated shall maintain CONFIDENTIAL or 6 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL status pending a determination by the court as to its appropriate 7 status.

8 10.4 Non-waiver: The production of Confidential Discovery Materials by a Party under 9 the terms of this Order shall not be construed to mean that the Producing Party has waived any 10 objection to the production, relevancy or admissibility of such Materials. Nothing contained 11 herein shall preclude any Party from opposing any discovery on any basis.

12 10.5 Additional Parties: If an additional party joins or is joined in these actions, the 13 newly joined party shall not have access to CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL 14 Material until the parties agree to a supplemental Protective Order governing the protection of 15 CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material.

16 10.6 Third Parties: Third Parties shall be treated as Parties for purposes of this 17 Protective Order, except to the extent ordered otherwise by this Court or another court of 18 coordinate jurisdiction. Any Third Party from whom discovery is sought in these actions may 19 designate some or all of the documents, things, information or other material as 20 CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material under this Protective Order. If it 21 does so, then each Party to the action will have with respect to such CONFIDENTIAL and 22 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material the same obligations which that Party has with respect to 23 CONFIDENTIAL and HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material of another Party to the action.
24 Nothing in this Paragraph or this Protective Order is intended to, or does, excuse any Third Party 25 from compliance with a duly served subpoena.

26 10.7 Attendance at Depositions: If a deposition concerns CONFIDENTIAL or 27 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material, the Producing Party shall have the right to exclude from 28

1 the portion of the deposition concerning such information any person not authorized in 2 accordance with Paragraphs 4.2-4.3 above to have access to such Material. In-house counsel 3 authorized to receive CONFIDENTIAL Material pursuant to Paragraph 10(b) shall only be 4 excluded from the portion of the deposition that contains questions and answers that reveal the 5 content of information designated HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL, the disclosure of which is likely 6 to cause harm to the competitive position of the Producing Party, and which would have been 7 redacted from expert reports, pleadings, briefs or other papers filed with the Court in these actions 8 under seal as specified in Paragraph 7.

9 10.8 Unauthorized Disclosure: In the event of disclosure of any CONFIDENTIAL or 10 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material to a person not authorized to have access to such material, 11 the Party responsible for having made, and any Party with knowledge of, such disclosure shall 12 immediately inform outside counsel for the Producing Party whose CONFIDENTIAL or 13 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material has thus been disclosed of all known relevant information 14 concerning the nature and circumstances of the disclosure. The responsible Party also promptly 15 shall take all reasonable measures to ensure that no further or greater unauthorized disclosure or 16 use of such Material is made and to retrieve any Material improperly disclosed. Each Party shall 17 cooperate in good faith in that effort.

18 10.9 Termination of Access:

- 19 a. In the event any person or Party ceases to be engaged in the conduct of 20 these actions, such person's or Party's access to CONFIDENTIAL and 21 HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material shall be terminated, and all copies 22 thereof shall be returned or destroyed in accordance with the terms of 23 Paragraph 10.1 hereof, except that such return or destruction shall take 24 place as soon as practicable after such person or party ceases to be engaged 25 in the conduct of these actions.
- 26 b. The provisions of this Order shall remain in full force and effect as to any 27 person or Party who previously had access to CONFIDENTIAL and 28

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL Material, except as may be specifically ordered by the Court or consented to by the Producing Party.

10.10 Modification:

- a. Stipulations may be made, between Counsel for the respective Parties, as to the application of this Order to specific situations, provided that such stipulations are recorded in writing or contained in the record of any oral proceeding. Nothing contained herein shall preclude any Party from seeking an order of the Court modifying or supplementing this Order.

10.11 Duration: Even after the termination of these actions, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Producing Party agrees otherwise in writing or a Court order otherwise directs.

SO STIPULATED.

ORDER

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: May 8, 2014

William H. Orrick

United States District Judge

EXHIBIT A

UNDERTAKING TO BE BOUND BY STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

I, _____ [print or type full name], of _____ _____ [print or type full address], declare under penalty of perjury that I have read in its entirety and understand the Stipulated Protective Order issued by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California on May __, 2014 in the action In re Lidoderm Antitrust Litigation, MDL Docket No. 14-md-02521-WHO.

I agree to comply with and to be bound by all the terms of the Stipulated Protective Order.
I understand and acknowledge that failure to so comply could expose me to sanctions and punishment in the nature of contempt. I solemnly promise that I will not disclose in any manner any information or item that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order to any person or entity except in strict compliance with the provisions of this Order.

I further agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California for the purpose of enforcing the terms of the Stipulated Protective Order, even if such enforcement proceedings occur after termination of this action.

I hereby appoint _____ [print or type full name] of _____ [print/type full address and tel. no.]
as my California agent for service of process in connection with this action or any proceedings related to enforcement of this Stipulated Protective Order.

Dated: _____, 201____ at (location): _____

Name: _____ Signature: _____
